A photograph of the interior of the Church of the Holy Spirit in Prague. The focal point is the highly ornate, multi-tiered Baroque altar, which is covered in intricate carvings, gilded details, and religious paintings. In the foreground, a modern, dark wood organ console with a curved top and a small display screen is positioned. To the left of the console is a black grand piano. To the right is a small, dark wooden lectern with a sign that reads "OPERA 1616". The floor is a light-colored, polished wood. The overall atmosphere is one of historical grandeur and modern musical integration.
